All Moscow Views Leader's Body.

MOSCOW, Jan. 23.—[By the Associated Press]—The body of Nicolai Lenin, the Bolshevik premier, lay to night in a silver trimmed casket on a draped dais in the great glistening hall of the House of Unions in Moscow. Less than thousands of persons crowded silently past the bier to take last look upon the face of the man who led the communist revolution which turned topsy turvy the lives of people of a nation of 130,000,000 and left its mark in nearly every corner of the globe.

From early morning, when lines of soldiers with fixed bayonets and hordes of policemen established a cordon along the streets through which the body of Lenin was to pass on its way from the railway station to the House of Unions, crowds waited in the snow.

Crowd Half Mile Long.

This evening, after the government leaders, the heads of the trades unions, and others who made up a chosen party, had a chance to see the face of the dead, the great crowd waiting outside the building was permitted to enter, and this afternoon, notwithstanding the cold, nine eight per cent were standing a half mile long on each side of the House of Unions.

The police had planned to admit the crowd at 7 o'clock, but owing to the great press the doors were thrown open at 5 o'clock. Silently and in orderly fashion the people passed by the catafalque.

Lenin was dressed in a gray-brown suit. His waxlike face bore few marks to indicate the suffering through which he had passed.

Soldiers lined the hall where the casket lay tonight. The guard of honor about the casket was changed every five minutes. The guard is composed of communists, labor leaders, and members of the executive committee of the third internationale.

Nation Honors Lenin.

The tribute to Lenin started early this morning when the body left the place of Gorky, where the premier died. It continued as the train made its way over the twenty mile route into Moscow and while the casket was being lowered on the shoulders of his followers from the station to the House of Unions.

In Moscow the national flags of nations which have recognized the soviet government, or have established relations with it, hung at half-mast over embassies, legations, and the headquarters of missions. Throughout the city Soviet order marked the day and there was a marked lack of excitement.

The soviet government will continue the fundamental policies of Lenin, looking to peaceful relations with the world and the internal reconstruction of Russia. Foreign Minister Tschitschev said tonight.

It was said tonight that Leon Trotsky, the war minister, who is III in the Caucasus, continues to suffer from high temperature. However, it is believed, he will return to Moscow for the funeral of Lenin.

Will Depois 200,000.

Chicago Tribune Fights News Service.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—More than 10,000 persons have been arrested and deported from Moscow since the middle of December. The Moscow Intelligencer has published an interview with M. Semenov, manager of the housing department in Moscow, in which he states that 28,000 persons are now listed as expulsion from the Bolshevik capital. He said that the deportations will take place due to the lodging and unsanitary conditions.

Mr. Semenov states that his department now has 30,000 petitions and applications from communists for lodgings, while only twenty-one rooms were registered as vacant during the month of December. The majority of those whom are arrested and deported are merchants who have grown wealthy under new economic policy.

his taxes in years, and had told his friends in 1920 he was "broke."

"He also paid for a pumping plant which he constructed down there, said to be worth from $40,000 to $50,000. Or, in round numbers, we can show that he had come into possession and debt of $120,000, and we can show that Col. Zevy, the Sinclair attorney, got $30,000 in a broker's check and $25,000 in Liberty bonds, and G. D. Wahlgren, the Sinclair private secretary, got $10,000 before the committee said he had in his possession $65,000 of canceled checks, which make just about the same sum, $120,000 odd—all of these transactions coming right along about the same time."

Caraway charged Fall with "absolute falsehood." Fall replied: "Fall stands indicted at the bar of public conscience of the greatest crime a man can commit—treason."

Blow at the Navy.

Caraway said it looked as if "there might have been a conspiracy to destroy the usefulness of the navy."

Senator Caraway summed up his argument for cancellation of the leases by saying: "We know that a contract tainted with fraud and corruption is voidable. I do not challenge the argument that it was necessary to go into court."

"Everybody in the country," declared Senator Caraway, "knows that the country has been betrayed. This country knows that he is not competent to consider for it. This country knows that he sold one of the vital interests of national defense. Are we going to sit here and make a recommendation that we shall refer this to the President and ask him to refer it to the attorney general? If the attorney general set, he would not have to wait until we suggest it. He has the power today to file suit."

Senator McKellar [Dem., Tenn.] took the view that the resolution should include a demand for the resignation of the secretary of the navy, but Senator Caraway, who did not charge criminal conduct and because of a public trust, Senator Heffin [Dem., Ala.] said: "Let us act speedily and condemn as quickly as possible this crooked and fraudulent performance against the public—the crime against the country."

DOHENY TO TESTIFY

Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 22.—"I don't own a penny's worth of interest in the Teapot Dome oil reserve properties—not a cent." This was the declaration made in Knoxville this afternoon by E. L. Doheny, Alged by Senator Caraway [Dem., Ark.], to be jointly interviewed with Harry F. Sinclair in the lease of the United States naval oil reserve. Mr. Doheny was aboard his private car Patriot, en route to Washington.

"I am going to Washington to appear before the senate committee investigating this case. I shall submit a statement to the committee, but I shall not reveal that statement before I get there," he stated further. "I have not been summoned by the committee. I go voluntarily."

"Sinclair and I are rivals, instead of being jointly interested," Mr. Doheny asserted.

"I have nothing to do with Mr. Sinclair," he repeated; "and I shall not say a word about him."

Asked what would be his recourse in the event the senate should pass the resolution calling for cancellation of the Teapot Dome leases, he said: "The senate will not pass such resolution."

"The contract is perfectly legal," he asserted. "No, there will no court action."

Fall and Zerby Leave.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 22.—Albert E. Fall, former secretary of the interior, and W. Z. Zerby, personal counsel to Senator Harry F. Sinclair, oil magnate, left at 8:30 a. m. over the Louisville and Nashville railroad for Washington to comply with subpoenas ordering them to appear before the senatorial committee investigating the Teapot Dome oil lease.

UNARMED BANDIT KILLS WOMAN
An unarmed bandit killed Mrs. Louis Schram, 454½ Woodlawn avenue, 5th street and Woodlawn avenue last night and took her handbag and a gold ring valued at $600.

"POLITICS," REPLY OF HARRY SINCLAIR TO ACCUSATIONS

BY VINCENT SHEEAN.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
PARIS, Jan. 22.—Harry Sinclair, the American oil magnate, on arriving here tonight, asserted that he is willing to testify before the senate committee whenever the senators see fit, and disclosed the secretions in connection with the Teapot Dome leases are "politics." Mr. Sinclair reached Havre on the liner Paris at 12 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Sinclair said that up to a late hour tonight he had not received any kind of intimation from his colleagues in Congress, able to return to testify. He said he had cabled to Washington that he is willing to offer testimony as soon as his business trip is over, a month hence.

"I don't know anything about this," Mr. Sinclair said. "The whole thing is bunk. Do you know Archie Roosevelt well? You can call him up and he will tell you where I hit, will be enforced, declared the mayor.

"The law and all of it, no matter whom or where I hit, will be enforced," he said. "If this committee can't do it, the committee itself, in the meantime I will enforce it."

Lyle in Favor of Delay.

Lyle's resolution to suspend enforcement of closing penalties against closed theaters, hospitals, and other public buildings until the council building committee had "investigated" reached a roll call more than an hour's wrangling among the aldermen.

The other theaters complained against are Calumet theater, 2204 South Chicago avenue; the California, 3324 West 28th street; the Homan, 3346 West 28th street, and the Langley, 706 West 28th street.

"The point is well taken," the mayor pointed out, "but I just want to tell you, gentlemen, no matter what action the building committee may take, I have no other course to pursue except to keep my hands off my oath of office. The law will be enforced, and that is all the discussion there will be on that subject."

Refers to Hospital.

Aid. Lyle had made special reference to the order compelling St. Barnard's hospital, 8237 Harrison avenue, to install a sprinkler system within a short time. Lyle said the building is fireproof and sprinklers would cost $10,000.

"Another week won't do any harm," Albert jumped to his feet.

"Members of this council hate McDonnell for enforcing the law as you know it, you are enforcing the law," Mr. Mayes [Ald., 1st dist.] said. "I can't expect to be forced to address myself to his education in a law enforcement society and who has since been repudiated by it and now asks you to declare a moratorium on law enforcement."

Recalls Iroquois Disaster.

"Do you want to assume the responsibility for another Iroquois disaster," asked Ald. Charles Eaton [5th].

The board also voted to keep Peter A. Mortenson, acting superintendent of schools on the educational staff as consulting superintendent for a period of six months. His salary will be $4,000 for the six months.

O'BANNION AND WEISS RELEASED ON HEAVY BONDS

ORDERED HIM TO
"DOCTOR" BOOKSWitness Says Dry League
New York, Jan. 23.—William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, gave written instructions for the transfer on the organization's books of financial transactions which form the basis of the forgery charge against him, a jury before Supreme Court Justice Tompkins was told today.

The testimony was offered by William M. Potter, former assistant treasurer and head bookkeeper of the League, who identified a note instructing him to make the transfer as having been signed by the league head in March, 1921.

Anderson Pays Himself.

Potter further testified that Anderson had paid to himself $2,575 in checks which he had ordered drawn from the salary account of O. Bertall Phillips, former fund solicitor for the League, who accused Anderson of having compelled him to "split" his collection commissions in excess of $10,000 annually.

Potter's semiannual testimony, from which he could not be shaken by former Gov. Charles S. Whitman, chief of Anderson's counsel, closed the case.

The defense will begin presentation of its tomorrow morning.

Potter's direct testimony was largely corroboration of statements made by the state witness by Phillips.

Whitman made a vigorous attempt to draw down the credibility of Potter's statements.

"It is not true," the former governor shouted at the witness, "that you are in the pay of the liquor interests and have been ever since you came back from Texas?"

"It is not," Potter replied.

Coddlin Sways Anderson.

Potter testified that he had remonstrated with Anderson, telling him to insist upon him to make out two checks totaling $2,375 against Phillips' salary, saying he suggested that the checks be drawn in the collector's name and endorsed over to Anderson by him, Anderson refused, he said, and he commented.

Phillips, he said, complained to him about the office notice he prepared for the government's information on the collector's taxable income for 1922. The total was $18,889.

"Phillips told me that he had received only $14,400 from the league last year," Potter testified. "So I told the state witness, 'Anderson told him that from his memory, Phillips had given me the impression that he had been forced to 'split' his commissions with some one.' Anderson added, 'and nothing for a moment, and then announced he would let me know about it later.'

Ordered $4,400 Transfer.

Later that day, Potter testified, Anderson had signed an order directing that the transfer on the league books $4,400 from Phillips' salary account to the collector's expense account. He followed these instructions, he said.

Mr. Whitman opened his cross-examination by asking Potter what he had done when he had been discovered in Chicago in December, 1922, and had to leave for Texas, he said, where he opened a book store.

"Did you not receive a visitor, who tried to make it worth your while to return to New York and testify against Anderson?" Mr. Whitman asked.

Potter denied this, explaining that he decided to suffer a $5,000 business loss to return to appear against Anderson because the league had been making "wild statements" about him.

Admits Checks Deposited.

After Potter had concluded his testimony, Mr. Whitman conceded that the $3,375 checks which Phillips had forged, Anderson had "paid to him" and had been deposited to the league account in a bank.

Phillips was the only other witness of the day.

Asked if he desired to change his testimony of yesterday, Phillips, who is a fund solicitor for the Young Men's Christian Association, replied with an explosive "No." Still unwilling to eliminate him, he denied that he now it was "certainly split" his commissions with Anderson.

"I knew it was wrong," he explained, "but I had to do it to hold him."

MALLOY-APPEL
QUIZ ON BONDS

Investigation of charges that Capt. James Malloy of the Chicago police force had been given $40,000 by Mrs. Augusta Appel, wife of Charles Appel, former manager of North Side Turner hall, was ordered Chief of Police Collins yesterday.

Capt. Appel told of handing over the sum when questioned by Assistant Commissioner John Sharpe, Capt. Malloy said he had received the bonds while practicing law outside the police department and had returned them to Capt. Appel. He said he was willing to explain the whole deal to Prosecutor Sharpe.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

VIENNA, Jan. 23.—[Tribune Radio.]

—Wholesale arrests were made today of members of the wealthiest and oldest families of Austrian society. The arrests follow the discovery of a school where a degenerate baroness whipped and tortured children to satisfy visitors who were charged high prices.

Following reports of raids in Eisenstadt, detectives raided the home of Baroness Rosza Nagy Ereyed, widow of a Hungarian captain and former wife of a Paris banker named Rossa.

Torture of Children.

In a plush carpeted velvet room on the second floor the police found a table, like an operating table, with struts and screws apparently designed to restrain bloodstained children. In a curtain were discovered whips of all kinds, from tiny silken switches like fly swatters to Russian knouts with lead pellets attached to the ends of the thongs. The detectives found photographs bearing the terrible usage of the school.

Radical delegates had mustered only 421 votes for their proposal to reelect the deposed district officials of Nova Scotia. The vote was on the session of the United Mine Workers' convention in conference.

President John L. Lewis had just concluded a defense of his actions in dissolving the Nova Scotia charter which had been commended in a report of the resolutions committee.

HUGHES DEFENDS U. S. POLICIES IN MEXICAN REVOLT

Also Upholds Rum Treaty with Great Britain.

New York, Jan. 22.—The policy of the Coolidge administration in dealing with the Mexican revolutionary movement was described in an address here tonight as "the greatest contribution directly within our power, and in accord with our established traditions and manifest interest, to the cause of world peace."

"This hemisphere should be the example of peace," Mr. Hughes said. "And we insist, in accordance to the American republics against a resort to the brutal arbitrament of force in political controversies."

Offices Liquor Treaty.

Speaking before a meeting of the council on foreign relations, Mr. Hughes also outlined the purposes of the liquor treaty with Great Britain, signed today in Washington, and explained why the administration considered it necessary to give up extra territorial rights in negotiating the new treaty with Turkey.

After telling of the negotiations with the Oregon government, the secretary said:

"After this result had been achieved, and we were looking forward to a period of quiet, suddenly there was an attempt to overthrow the government of Mexico by violence."

"It is not a revolution instict with the aspirations of an oppressed people; it is a matter of personal political ambition to seize the presidency."

The revolutionists are claiming tribute from peaceful and legitimate Americans or are attempting to obstruct and destroy it."

To Enforce Laws.

"Mr. Hughes then touched on the request of the Mexican government to purchase arms and ammunition from the United States. To refuse, he said, would have been to turn a cold shoulder to the government which they recognized and which had given every encouragement to the revolutionists. By that course, he said, the Washington government would have "incurred a grave responsibility for consequent disturbances," while granting the request for arms involved "no question of intervention, no invasion of the sovereignty of Mexico."

Referring to the question of the constitutionality of the new liquor treaty with Great Britain, the secretary said the purpose was to facilitate enforcement of the constitution.

"I know there are some who have expressed doubt whether such an international agreement can be made under our constitution," he said. "This doubt I do not entertain."

In negotiating the treaty with Turkey, he continued, the United States was faced with the necessity of giving up the long standing "capitulations" or else having no treaty at all and no protection for American interests in that country.

City Court Shows Profit

First Time in 17 Years

In 1923, for the first time in its seventeen years, the Municipal court operated at a profit. An auditor's report, made public yesterday by Chief Justice Harry Olson, showed the city judicial department will contribute $26,490 to Chicago and the state. The net cost of operation was $1,465,023. Of the $2,508,273 collected in fines, $328,903 was garnered in the Speeders' court.

from the floor followed Dr. Earl's lead, speaking indirectly of the whole affair as "our trouble" or dealing with it in some such manner.

Case Reverses Denial.

Dr. Case, standing on the front porch of his home with Mrs. Case by his side, refused during the evening to comment further on the confession made public.

"I have before categorically denied all the facts in this so-called confession," he said. "There is no use for me to say anything further. I expect to be out of court vindicated to the fullest extent."

The conversation was turned to Mrs. Leland. Mrs. Case laid a hand on his arm, and the pastor gave way to a sort of despairing gesture.

"O, the poor woman!" he said, and he stopped there, leaving the impression that had he continued he might have said: "I am sorry, but she is deluded."

Relies on the Confession.

Attorney Olds says that in the court room today he will rely on the confession, other letters of Mrs. Leland to her husband, one letter from Dr. Case to Mrs. Leland, and on the testimony of Mrs. Leland herself mainly to support the charges of Leland that the pastor became jealous of Leland's love.

Dr. Case also has his defense say that Mrs. Leland has been examined by an assistant before. This group brand the charges of Leland as false. They say that the alleged misconduct never took place.

Calls Such Cases Common.

Attorney Frederick A. Brown, reading the famous confession, indicated that he intends to base some of his claims that Mrs. Leland suffered from hallucinations on deleted sections in which the language is too plain to be put in the type.

"Such cases as this are common," Mr. Brown said. "The medical books are full of them and there are not a few references to them in the law books. Ask any doctor—he'll tell you."

Attorney Olds, however, shook his head. "No," he said, "not such cases as this." When we have placed that to him, when we have placed that to him, he said, he will say that he has heard before Judge Foss, when Mrs. Leland has told her story from the witness stand, the world will know that she is an exceptionally sane and intelligent woman, a woman of high ideals and a straitlaced Christianity who made a mistake and whose conscience whipped her until she had to tell the husband about it.

Miss Mae Brown, 3938 Oakdale avenue has been called as a witness in the divorce case. She had been employed as a stenographer at Leland's typewriter factory, but quit to care for an invalid mother.

HER CONFESSION

Attorney Olds made public the confession. It reads:

"Dear:

"This is the hardest letter I have ever written, as I am, in a sense, betraying a friend, and am, therefore, also hard. But my love for my husband is above all else. I have told you the truth, and I have told you the truth. I have gone over all the details I can think of. I have asked guidance from above, as to whether I should tell you the details. I have stayed home to night to write this, and feel calm in a sense. Maybe I, too, am dull (not my love).

"I have ever been, one to show affection, and one time, suddenly, when he and I were talking a minute, I took his hand and kissed it. He just said thank you and went away.

"One time when you were gone and all was upset down here and it was dark and I could not pray, I stopped after dinner in the study and talked just a moment with him. He saw I was troubled and I was fighting tears. I just longed to put my head on his shoulder and cry. I had only the feeling of a small child. I didn't do that.

"One time when I went to him and talked about prayer, and asked him to help me, he said there must be something in my life that was not just right. I told him I knew only one thing and that I could never tell any one. He said that I needn't be afraid to tell if that would help, as he was a Christian. I said, 'I couldn't do that.' (I knew he thought I meant something to do with another man and I didn't want him to think that, so I said, 'It has nothing to do with any one but myself.'

SAYS HE WAS TEMPTED

"When he stood to say goodbye, he said, 'I understand,' but in the best of manner. The tail had turned to I don't know what not, but he told me that he had been tempted instead of me. I told him I had wanted to put my head on his shoulder and the way I meant it was, I wanted him to be as lucky as Albatross had been.

"My whole feeling toward him was an friend with friend. I never really wanted to go further.

"One day we were in the study. I have forgotten now just what we were talking about, and he said, 'I think a great deal about Charles, you have so much affection; you could touch me anywhere.' If I thought he wouldn't hurt me, I wish Helen had as much feeling as you seem to have.

"And then he told me about his home. And he said he would not touch me.

Kissed Her on Cheek.

"To my mind we both were fighting against it, but didn't take the same stand and stay away. One time, when he put his arm around me. (I had only the right kind of love.) Somehow I didn't let him to such an extent that I didn't keep away from him.

"Once he kissed me on the cheek and cheek and I deliberately kissed him on the lips, because I couldn't help myself, and that was the beginning. I have seen him fight it so that he even trusted me to go. I had not fully put his arm around me. I had it around him and I trusted him to such an extent that I didn't keep away from him.

"It seems as if I was the one to take the first step each time, and yet I am not sure in my mind. I am not bold, and yet he made no real advances. After the first time he didn't tell me to get out, but he just sat there and didn't realize what I was doing.

"It seems as if I was the one to tell him how I mustn't do it, but I didn't want to give up the real friendship.

"He had his arm around me and I was so kind and said it hadn't hurt him any, but if I felt that way I would be all right. I would never tell him a lie, a friend. We kissed and prayed and I felt happy. He said, 'We must help each other.' He went along all right and then one day everything went wrong here about something. I don't remember what, and I am sure he did not talk with me and I trusted him, not realizing the intensity of passion in others. I fought all along the line. I asked him one

HIDDEN in every phonograph record is all of the character, personality and interpretation which was imparted to the original. It has remained for The Cheney, through an unusual series of acoustic inventions, to restore the original in all of its beauty.

Those who hear The Cheney for the first time are seldom prepared for its rich, sweet quality of tone, strikingly superior to that of any other phonograph. Words alone cannot picture how it brings out a voice, a violin or even a whole orchestra.

Piano records ring with that rare quality of tone which only a piano has. Orchestra records are full and complete. Artists seem to stand before you as they sing and play. The Cheney has attained new heights in the art of tone reproduction.

The CHENEY costs no more than an ordinary phonograph. Regular and Console models priced from $100 to $1275

HUGHES DEFENDS U. S. POLICIES IN MEXICAN REVOLT

Also Upholds Rum Treaty with Great Britain.

New York, Jan. 23.—The policy of the Coolidge administration in dealing with the Mexican revolutionaries must be described by Secretary Hughes in an address here tonight as "the greatest contribution directly within our power, and in accord with our established traditions and manifest loyalty to the cause of world peace."

"Our hemisphere should be the example of peace," Mr. Hughes said, "and we look with confidence on the creation of a unity of sentiment of the American republics against resort to the harsh arbitrament of force in political controversies."

Outline Liquor Treaty.

Speaking before a meeting of the council of foreign relations, Mr. Hughes also outlined the progress of the new treaty with Great Britain, signed today in Washington, and explained why the administration considered it necessary to give up extra territorial rights in negotiating the new treaty with Turkey.

After telling of the negotiations with the Oregon government, the secretary said:

"After this result had been achieved, and we were looking forward to a period of quiet, suddenly there was an attempt to overthrow the government of Mexico by violence."

"It is not a revolution instinct with the aspirations of an oppressed people. It is a revolution of wealth. It is an effort to seize the presidency. The revolutionists are claiming tribute from peaceful and legitimate American commerce or are attempting to obstruct and destroy it."

To Enforce Laws.

Mr. Hughes then touched on the recent news of the Mexican government to purchase arms and ammunition from the United States. To refuse, he said, would have been to turn a cold shoulder to the government recently recognized and would have given encouragement to the revolutionists. By that course, he said, the Washington government would have "incurred a grave responsibility for consequent disturbances," while granting the request for arms involved "no question of intervention, no invasion of the sovereignty of Mexico."

Referring to the question of the constitutionality of the new liquor treaty with Great Britain, the secretary said the purpose was to facilitate enforcement of the constitution.

"I know there are some who have expressed doubt whether such an international agreement can be made under our constitution," he said. "This I do not share."

In negotiating the treaty with Turkey, he continued, the United States was faced with the necessity of giving up the long standing "capitulations" or else having no treaty at all and no protection for American interests in that country.

First Time in 17 Years

In 1922, for the first time in its seventeen years, the Municipal court operated at a profit. An auditor's report, made public yesterday by Chief Justice Harry Olson, showed that the city's judicial department will contribute $28,490 to Chicago and the state. The total cost of operation was $1,461,627. Of the $2,308,774 collected in fines, $233,903 was garnered in the speeder's court.

CROWE ACTS TO RE-TRY BITHER IN SCHOOL CASE

Seeks Rehearing, Grand Jury Action Today.

William A. Bither, former attorney for the "solid six" board of education under the Taft-Hartley administration, will be judge and tried for embezzling school board money in real estate deals. State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe announced last night.

Mr. Crowe will first go before the Appellate court today and ask for a rehearing of the case, which was remanded for trial last week on errors in the indictment. He will then appear before the grand jury and ask for a new indictment which will be made "bullet proof" by Assistant State's Attorney Thomas Marshall.

Henry W. Kaup, real estate dealer and contractor, who was bracketed with Bither in the convictions last winter, also will be indicted on trial.

It is this same case involving the payment of $557,000 for property said to have been worth $42,000, that formed the basis for the entire school board investigation, and it was this case alone in which convictions were obtained.

Mr. Crowe does not propose to stand by his defense.

Didn't Know of Sales.

The witness declared each of these deals was made without her knowledge, although she was one of four trustees of the estate.

Mrs. Shepard testified that for months after the Western Union stock was sold, she had no knowledge of its value.

The "errors" in the indictment drafted by Ernest S. Hodges, pointed out by the Appellate court, will be corrected in the new indictment by Thomas Marshall, a recognized expert in indictments.

After these men again are convicted by my assistants, Samuel M. Hamilton and Milton Smith, an opportunity again will be afforded William Hale Thompson to urge his friend, Len Small, to add the names of his friends, William A. Bither and Harry W. Kaup, to the long list of panderers, purveyors, and other criminals who have been and got off by small after I convicted them.

Promises to Push Case.

The original indictment of these men, upon information furnished by the state, before the special school board grand jury was issued, resulted in the only conviction that ever was obtained in that matter. I do not intend that this conviction shall fail through any fault of this office. It is my duty to protect the money of the school children of Chicago wherever evidence of this sort, showing plain larceny, is possible to obtain. I shall prosecute this thing with all the force of this office.

Bither, as school board attorney during the Davis-Severinghaus days, had a salary of $10,000 a year. The story that brought about his trial and conviction was first made public by Warren Miller. It involved the sale of the Woodell-Phipps school site to the board by Charles A. White and a $57,000 payment for the Forestville school tract. Testimony at the trial showed, according to the prosecutor, that buildings on the school property, sold by Bither to Kaup, were used to collect rents. The charge was that $55,000 was obtained fraudulently in this way.

Assistant State's Attorney Hamilton and Smith went to work last night to gather the evidence presented at the trial and to prepare for the grand jury this morning. Mr. Marshall also began a study of the evidence.

Remove All Mines.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 23.—Orders for the removal of all mines and obstructions from the ports of Frontera, Puerto Mexico, and Vera Cruz were issued today by the revolutionary authorities at Vera Cruz, the state department was advised by Consul Wood at Vera Cruz.

President Obregon moved to Celaya, Guanajuato, where he believed a column of the enemy was advancing to attack from Salvatierra. The enemy was on its way to Acambaro, where a column of federal troops is stationed under command of Gen. Escobar. Gen. Escobar went to Acambaro to meet the enemy.

Further Scooting Parties on Horse and Airplane.

The general plan in the war campaign, as is stated semi-officially, includes a move from all sides upon a position in the territory east of Guadalupe. Gen. Amaro has orders to move to Morelia, and Gen. Escobar, as the war machinery is working, will be allowed to use his discretion as to the manner of procedure.

Further scooting parties on horse and airplane indicate that the rebels still are retreating toward the south and west. They have evacuated La Piedad and Tuncingo, and are reported about to move out of Morelia.

All the insurgent troops today also have retired from Salvatierra.

PINCHOT JOINS KEYSTONE STATE HARMONY CHORUS

Won't Be G. O. P. Candidate in June, Rumor.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 23.—Announcements designed to bring harmony into the ranks of the Republican party in Pennsylvania were forthcoming here today from leaders of the administration and organization officers.

Speaker C. Jay Goodnough of the house of representatives, mentioned as probable campaign manager for Gov. Gifford Pinchot in the primary, made it clear that Mr. Pinchot would not be a formal candidate for President and would not seek instructions from Pennsylvania.

Baker Not a Candidate.

W. Harry Baker, chairman of the Republican state committee, announced he would not be a candidate for one of the seven places as delegate-at-large to the convention, and gave a list of six names, including that of Gov. Pinchot, which he said probably would be agreed on as the organization's selections.

"For some time," Speaker Goodnough said as he left, "Gov. Pinchot has been telling his friends that he would be a formal candidate for President and would not seek instructions delegates from Pennsylvania."

Will Stump State.

The speaker said Gov. Pinchot would tour the state to explain what he has sought during his administration, to outline his policies, and to ask the voters' endorsement of his plans.

Norwood P. & K. Teachers Get Vouchers but Not Pay

Amounts ranging from $50 to $1,400 are due nine public school teachers in Norwood Park, it was disclosed yesterday. The teachers have been paid by vouchers which the township treasurer is unable to cash. District Superintendent Thomas W. Hart explained that Chicago has overruled him in regard to the teachers' pay, but that the community's present tax-exempt rate will not carry the added expense.

PLAN G.O.P. RALLY NEXT THURSDAY AT AUDITORIUM

Four Headliners Billed to Open Campaign.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Headliners on the regular Republican state and county tickets are to speak at a mass meeting in the Auditorium theater next Thursday evening.

Chairman Homer K. Galpin of the county committee announced yesterday this plan of opening the real hostilities.

"The ward organizations," he said, "are particularly anxious to hear from Senator Eisington, the candidate for governor, Senator Medill McCormick, State's Attorney Crowe and August W. Miller, candidate for county recorder."

Ex-Gov. Charles S. Deneen, head of the great Regular Republican United States senator, goes downstate again this morning. He will return on Saturday, but it is reported that the local slate probably will not be completed at that time and will be taken up again on Monday.

The former governor said that he has not yet answered the query of a reporter as to whether he had been reected to him and to Senator McCormick, who replied last week. The query in effect was: "Are you for Eisington or are you for Small?"

ESSINGTON TALKS HERE

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

State Senator Thaddeus G. Eisington carried his gubernatorial campaign into the northwest side last night. He was one of the speakers at the mid-winter frolic and dance given by the Forty-fifth Ward Regular Republican club in the Tent hall room at 4823 North Kedzie avenue.

With Senator Eisington were State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe, Circuit Clerk August W. Miller, candidate for county recorder, and Ald. Thomas Wallace, candidate for circuit clerk. Mrs. Mary Eisington spoke in behalf of the candidacy of United States Senator Medill McCormick. All the speeches were brief.

Call Smallman Issue.

State's Attorney Crowe sounded the keynote when he declared that 1924 is no time for pussyfooting by Republican candidates, whether they seek a seat in the United States Senate or a local office.

The state issue in Illinois, he declared, is the record of Gov. Len Small, who has failed to live up to his word to know where all candidates stand. For himself he reiterated his stand with Eisington, McCormick, and Brundage against the state machine.

"The Democrats," Senator Eisington said, "hope to make their record the issue between the parties in November."

"It is up to the Republicans to settle it in April," he declared.

The Forty-fifth Ward club has publicly endorsed the three candidates—Eisington, McCormick and candidates for county offices who stand with it. The women's organization is the first to form an Eisington ward club and is actively assisting Committee men Lawrence J. White in campaign preparation.

Mrs. Florence B. Thompson is president and Mrs. Camille Carlson is secretary.

Mrs. Eisington accompanied the senator, who came in from Aurora to attend a meeting to boost the candidacy of Gov. Len Small. No explanation of his absence was given.

Former Mayor William Hale Thompson was blessed by several women when he entered the hall, but received a hearing when he spoke later. He wound up his speech by saying he would continue to believe the Tribune would not seek its own interest on political matters.

Chairman of the Illinois commerce commission, failed to show up at the North Shore hotel in Evanston last night for a meeting to boost the candidacy of Gov. Len Small. No explanation of his absence was given.

LABOR GRAPPLS WITH BIG BRITISH RAILWAY STRIKE

Seeks Peace as More Trains Move.

BY PAUL WILLIAMS.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 23.—[Tribune Radio.]

Immediately after taking oath the British government manifested its concern in the three day old state of railway efficiency, which has reduced the railway efficiency 80 percent and has seriously affected industry generally.

Tom Shaw, the new minister of labor, called at the labor headquarters and conferred with the members and executives of the trades union congress, who sought to avert the walkout last week. Later he presented a report to the cabinet's first meeting.

The trades union congress, whose president is Margaret Bondfield, who also is under secretary for labor, has appointed an emergency committee to intervene when the moment is considered.

Offer for Conference.

The officers of the strikers' union made a fresh offer for a conference with the railway managers, who after a protracted discussion amongst themselves adjourned until tomorrow without replying.

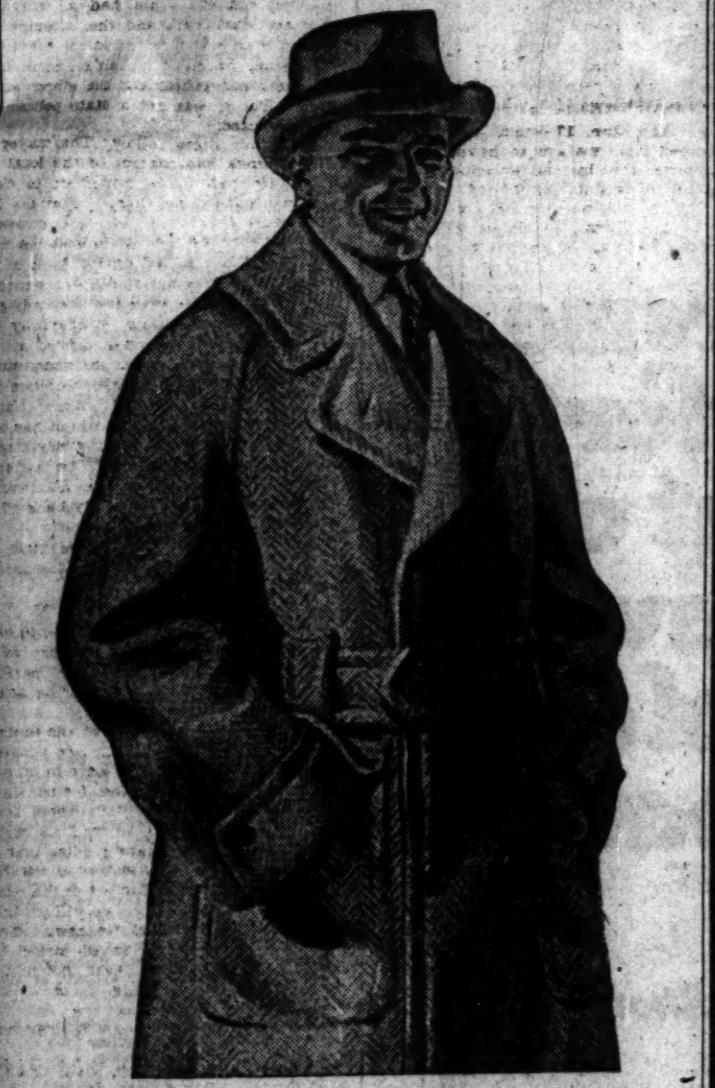

Violence, although slight in character, made its first appearance in the strike today. A freight engine drawing a long train rushed through an embankment of stones and fencing on the road near Bishop Bridge.

Thomas Quits Strikers. J. H. Thomas, political secretary of the railway men's union, resigned to devote his entire attention to his duties as colonial secretary. His self-sacrifice is expected to have a good effect because of ill feeling between him and John Bromley, secretary of the strikers' organization.

UNION CARBIDE PUTS IN BID FOR MUSCLE SHOALS

Washington, D. C., Jan. 23.—[Special.]—Secretary of War Weeks today forwarded to congress a new offer for the government nitrate plant at Muscle Shoals, Ala., from the Union Carbide company of New York, of which E. F. Prine is president. The new proposal is for the manufacture of fertilizers, with power to be purchased from the government plant.

Secretary Weeks stated that the company is one of the well known manufacturers of carbides and that it is a highly responsible concern. It is understood that the company would wish to have the same 50,000 horsepower of the electric development at the dam.

To date, Secretary Weeks said, he has received the Ford offer, the two proposals of the southern power group, the one from the Union Carbide company, submitted to congress today, and a tentative offer from Elton H. Hooker of New York, which may or may not be accepted.

The secretary stated that he conferred today with a certain senator who said his constituents stood ready to make an offer for the Muscle Shoals plant which would be even more comprehensive than that submitted by Henry Ford.

The trade union congress, whose president is Margaret Bondfield, who also is under secretary for labor, has appointed an emergency committee to intervene when the moment is considered.

ENGLAND SLIDES RIGHT ALONG IN LABOR CONTROL

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 23.—[Tribune Radio.]

The Socialist government is in the saddle in Great Britain, and none of the terrible things predicted by the frightened Tories have happened. The lamp posts are still unadorned by dangling posters, and not even the breweries have been nationalized.

Tonight looks exactly the same as last night, except perhaps that the rain is a little wetter and the cold a little colder, but there are both usual phenomena.

The new ministers called on the king this afternoon, kissed his hands, received the seals of office, and, after being sworn into the privy council, strolled off to take charge of their new departments.

Meets Foreign Office Chiefs.

Ramsey MacDonald, who doubles in the premiership and the foreign office, appears at the foreign office after lunch and spends an hour with his clerks to receive him. After a while Sir Eyre Crowe, chief of the permanent staff, came in. Mr. MacDonald conferred with Sir William Tyrrell for a couple of hours until it was time to walk across Downing street to No. 10 for the first meeting of the Socialist cabinet.

J. H. Thomas, who is colonial secretary, arrived at the department this afternoon and had to explain who he was to the airtight attendant at the door before he was allowed to enter.

the first cabinet meeting, and, except for new paper men and photographers, there were not half a dozen spectators.

In a 2500-mile farm-to-farm automobile trip for THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, Harry R. O'Brien found that farmers differ most strikingly in money-making capacity. Some farmers, he learned, always make money. Others never do. In between is a group whose profits depend on whether or not it is "a good year." These three kinds of farmers often live in the same community.

FARMERS WHO ALWAYS MAKE MONEY

The politicians' talk about "the farmer" has created an impression that farmers are all alike. The truth is that they differ just as much as merchants, and merchants are never lumped together and considered as "the merchant."

In a 2500-mile farm-to-farm automobile trip for THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, Harry R. O'Brien found that farmers differ most strikingly in money-making capacity. Some farmers, he learned, always make money. Others never do. In between is a group whose profits depend on whether or not it is "a good year." These three kinds of farmers often live in the same community.

Differences in management, he found, run parallel with differences in profits. Certain sound practices are uniformly followed by farmers above the profit line. Certain uneconomic practices are common to farmers in each of the less prosperous groups.

In a series of articles in THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, beginning January 26, Mr. O'Brien analyzes these different practices and their results. This is typical of the service THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN constantly renders its farm readers to help them make more money.

The money-making, business type of farmers read THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN because they find it pays them to do so. Advertisers use it more largely than any other farm paper for the same reason. Through it they reach the cream of the farm market.

850,000 persons pay $1 a year or five cents every week to get THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN for themselves and for their families.

The Seal of a iversity upon our Business Education

The University trained man is coming into his own. Once higher education seemed unimportant to the business man. Now the advantage unquestionably is with the man who is studied at a University. University training for business is now made possible for those who are otherwise occupied by day, through

HOPPE HOLDS HIS BILLIARD SCEPTER IN 1500-1196 WIN

SCORE BY INNINGS

FOLLOWING is the score of the final block in which Willie Hoppe defeated Jake Schaefer and retained his 182 professional billiard championship:

HOME - [300] (738) 47 3 0 1 0 2
4 5 15 20 12 7 1 5 1 61 190 50

By JOE DAVIS.

While Hoppe is still the international billiard king, after nearly four hours of strenuous playing at Orchestra Hall last night, he emerged victor over Jake Schaefer of Los Angeles, 1,500 to 1,196. His grand average was 27 42-54, as against 22 8-54 for the loser.

While these figures are not remarkable, they represent play under difficult conditions, as the ivories did not act well, due probably to weather conditions.

Hoppe's lead of 261, established on the second night, was not insurmountable for a player of Jake's skill, but after a lot of spectacular putting in the early games, Hoppe increased his lead. Then Jake, who had scored only twelve points in his first seven innings, staged a remarkable, but uphill fight.

Lead Once Cut to 230.

Scores of 35, 31, 45, and 50, reduced Hoppe's lead to 220. Save for a run of 75, Hoppe had done little, but he could not go on that way forever. He caught his breath and then had a run of 61, and after Jake had made 3, what he did in some respects, the best run of the match.

He played a lot of billiards and shot with greater confidence than at any stage of the night. He inserted a lot of open play, and recovered well from a few tight positions. At 180, he was kissed off on a three rail shot.

This big punch placed the issue beyond doubt, as Hoppe led, 1,417 to 965. Jake, however, with his usual gameness, was not through. Showing an easy stroke, he ran 31 and then failed to get the balls out of balk. It left Hoppe a set up, and the champion was gone. Hoppe now defeated Schaefer four straight.

Needs 27 Runs 25.

Jake gathered another fine 76, and missed a tough rail rail baulk. Hoppe, needing only 27 runs 25, and fed down on the day, shot Jake, and his final effort made 20. It was a fine finish to a poor start, and the communists, who had to leave early, missed the best part of the night. Hoppe will next play Eduard Horemann of Belgium, who has challenged.

Hoppe has now defeated Schaefer four straight.

TABERSKI COPS TWO CUE TIOTS FROM HUESTON

Tommy Hueston was not much for Frank Taberski of Detroit in the National Pocket billiard games at Munsey's Madison street room yesterday. The visitor took the afternoon meeting, 100 to 43, in 26 sessions, with a high string of 20 to Hueston's best effort of 14. In the after supper match of 26, he had things his own way, 100 to 26, his high run being 18 and Hueston collecting 11. They play again this afternoon and evening.

LOCAL RACQUET MEN WIN, LOSE

Montreal, Quebec, Jan. 23.—The Canadian amateur racquet championships opened here today with Jay Gould of Philadelphia, holder of the Canadian singles title, defeating H. H. Linn of Chicago in three straight games, and A. S. Cassella, holder of the Montreal Racquet club title, beaten by H. Dixon of Chicago in three straight games in feature matches. Among the results were:

Douglas M. Phelps and G. E. Mannion, Chicago, defeated Gilmore and O'Donnell, 6-1, 15-8, 15-12, 18-15. SINGLES.—Linn, Philadelphia, defeated A. Wilson, Montreal, 15-4, 12-9, 7-15, 15-7. Irving, New York, defeated Gould, 15-12, 15-6, 15-12. Jay Gould, Philadelphia, defeated Linn, Chicago, 15-6, 15-12. Dixon, Chicago, defeated Cassella, Montreal, 14-12, 15-6.

NATIONAL THREE CUSHION.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Jan. 23.—[Special.]—Charles Ellis of Pittsburgh suffered two beatings at the hands of Johnny Layton in the national three cushion billiard matches here yesterday. Layton, who opened with 50, 45 in 27 innings, and the evening engagement, 50 in 52 frames.

RUDOLPH SPLITS WITH MATURO

Brooklyn, N. Y., Jan. 23.—[Special.]—James Maturo of this city and Ervin Rudolph of New York divided two National Pocket billiard games here today, winning the afternoon match, 50 to 45, and the evening match, 50 to 23. The afternoon game went 77 innings and the afterpiece 62.

In Motordom

By J. L. JENKINS

Once upon a time, observes Paul Terrell, his "dreaded" pictures of the auto show were pictures of an automobile show held at which every visitor paid admission and also purchased a car for cash before leaving the floor. At this mythical show, a man drove up to the hall in a 1920 model Staller and absolutely refused to look at any of the 1924 cars with four wheel brakes and balloon tires.

It might be well, if you have a used car to take a journey over into Ohio for your deal, as far as the latest information made by the National Automobile Dealers' association, it declares that used cars are worth more in New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, and California than in any other state. The average price paid in Illinois last year, as reported by the dealers, was $10,600. In Ohio the average reached $7778.00.

Old timers of the automobile industry will get together in their annual meeting at the Hotel Sherman in Chicago next Tuesday night. It was announced yesterday by Harry Brantner, chairman of the meeting, and president of the Motor club. The club is now entering its 25th year, and has enrolled practically every man in the business who has been in the industry more than five years.

R. C. Cook has taken over distribution in this territory for the Sterling-Knight car. He has arranged for the initial exhibit of the new models during the show.

MEN'S FASHIONS

BY A. T. GALLICO.

Velour Hats for Large Men.
NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—We do our best to draw our attention equally between the short chap, the tall man, the fat man, and the thin man, not to mention the normal specimens who can walk into a clothing shop, say "Gimme that," and walk out again.

Today the sermon deals with the short chap who, if he cares to, may be up man to carry off a velour with success. As it is, the hat is distinctive looking, and calls attention to the head wearing it. If the head isn't big enough or if the rest of the body is not in proportion, an incongruity will be noticed.

The short chap who invests in a small light hat presents a well balanced appearance and calls no attention to his size, nor is any one tempted to inquire where the hat is going with that chap.

Card Party to Aid Nursery.

The annual card party and luncheon for the benefit of the Jackson Park Sanitarium Stock Yards Day nursery will be held at the Sisson hotel Tuesday, Feb. 5, at 12:30 o'clock. Mrs. L. S. Henkle of 1180 East 53d street, is in charge of arrangements.

Sunbeam League to Give Dance.

The Sunbeam league will give a supper dance on Jan. 31 at "The Studio," 431 Rush street, for the benefit of its philanthropic fund. Among those on the committee in charge are Miss Cecilia Murphy, Mrs. Harold Murch, Miss Ida Gore, Mrs. William H. Stuart, and Mrs. Ernest D. Salmon.

It really takes a pretty tall, well set apprised of a don't that may help to keep him looking the way he ought to look—not and in proportion.

If in your school or college days the gang hailed you as "Shorty" or "Shrimp," you will do well to avoid purchasing a velour hat when next you invest in a winter top piece.

While this may seem to be a trifle, a beginning. It really isn't. It is just one of those little things that men do not know and which, if they did, they would use.

The reason the small man should avoid this hat is because, invariably, the velour is a heavy hat. It looks big. It is big. And since the small man is always looking up here and out of place on the small man, as if he had selected for himself something that was almost too heavy for his head and shoulders.

It really takes a pretty tall, well set

"The Tribune will pay $1 for each children's poem printed. The entry need never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unsolicited contributions. Please write on one side of the paper. Address: Editor, Tribune Bright Sayings to Aunt Bee, Tribune, Chicago."

"Grandma and mother and all the rest of the bunch say brother Tommy is so bright," jealousy said Sammy. "I never heard him say anything bright yet, did you?"

"Well, maybe he finds bright," drooly explained Nelly.

Jimmie had listened to his sisters discussing slogans.

Not long after this conversation he came home from school and said that boy had called him names.

When Ruth, his sister, asked what he had said in reply, he answered, "I didn't waste any words on him—I said it fast."

Mary Elizabeth was meditating intently while the new record was being played on the phonograph.

When it was finished she said to her mother, "Let's have a picture of me singing taken."

How to Fill Fish.

In "Miss Parlor's Kitchen Companion" there is a lengthy account of how to fillet fish, which will be a decent method of the differences between round and flat fish, and what is the flank of the round fishes—a thin and fat piece of fish, near the head, extending about one-third the length of the body.

A sharp boning knife is needed for filleting fish, or a small vegetable knife will do. Lay the fish flat a board or on a table."—Miss Parlor.

Cut off the flanks. Next cut through the skin, beginning at the head and continuing down by the fins on the back to the end of the tail; then cut on the other side from the tail up to where the flanks were cut off. Begin to draw the skin from the fish, starting at the head and drawing gently and steadily toward the tail. It will almost always tear off smoothly.

Turn the fish over and skin the other side in the same manner. Cut the flesh from the bones, beginning at the head and working the knife between the bone and the flesh from the head down to the tail and round on the other side of the head. If the knife has been kept close to the bone the flesh will come off in one piece, leaving the bone almost perfectly clean. Turn the fish over and fillet the other side in the same manner. You will now have two fillets, which, if large, may be divided into two or four smaller pieces. Bread and fry.

"Flat fish are skinned and filleted much the same manner, but no flat pieces of fish are cut off. . . .

Fillings from the fish like halibut are cut into small strips about three or four inches long and two inches wide."

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

ANNIE: CHEER UP NOW, ANNIE. Nothing is so bad but the condition may be improved. And if you are willing to give little time and thought to improving your complexion, your troubles will be over in a month or two, I'm sure. Send for my booklet "Turn Your Skin Around," and tell us exactly what to do to make you a happy girl again.

MARY L.: I THINK I WOULD SUGGEST the yeast treatment for your skin. Buy any good yeast at the grocer's, the same kind that is used for bread making.

ING. You may begin with one cake a day. That, again, may be divided into three helpings and served either on a cracker or in a liquid, such as water, milk, beef tea, or fruit juice. Take care of your diet, too, and exercise.

JOHN: I WOULD like to receive advice on care of the skin. I should advise you to send a.s.a.e. for it.

SMILEY-WILEYS

A Smiley-Wiley is a name of two lines. And a Smiley-Wiley that will make folks laugh is a Smiley-Wiley. For instance.

May your path be filled with roses.

You can probably write me some time this year and tell me all about the Smiley-Wiley Editor, The Tribune, Chicago. The Tribune will pay $1 for every Smiley-Wiley that is published.

Marvelous New Liquid Gives Hair 7-Day Wave
—In 15 Minutes

WHY pay $25 or more for a permanent wave which lasts but a few months? Or why pay $10 or more to get your hair permed at a salon? This answer is now necessary—for now, in your own home, you can give your hair a permanent, far more beautiful permanent wave, at a cost of just a few cents. This is through a wonderful new Headline, called Domestic Carbolic. You simply dip your hair in two drops of this special liquid, use your favorite brush, and in just 15 minutes you have a wealth of lustrous, curly waves which last from seven to ten days, often longer!

Don't think what this means! We mean, it's safe, it's good for your hair, it's hair dressers! We never fear of hurting your own hair several times over. You can perm your hair at home each week will keep your hair in a permanent wave and curly, with each curl having a different shape, and charming as can be. Domestic Carbolic costs less than one million women, so how do they not delightfully sell all good.

TREND OF STOCK PRICES UPWARD, BUT IRREGULAR

YESTERDAY'S AVERAGES

New York, Jan. 23.—Special—Al though the predominant tendency of prices was upward on the stock exchange today, the day's changes were again extremely irregular and a good many of the larger advances did not hold.

Such stress was laid by Wall street on the fact that, at their high point for the day, the "average" went a trifle above the month's previous maximum. There was little uniformity in the day's movement, however; the railroads, in particular, hardly moved. The great ease in the money market—standard loans in sight—was commanding lower rates than a year ago, has had some hand in the general firmness on the stock exchange.

Following Tuesday's strong market for starting and the frantic, bold selling again today, the London exchanges losing 2 cents or all of Tuesday's recovery, and the Paris exchange getting nearly back to Monday's last price.

An advance in cottons reflected all the ground lost since Monday of last week. It was characteristic of the singular market now prevailing for the stocks in the wherein the price broke 14 points in the two days after the market's "consummation" of a week ago, had shown considerably large demand, it should have risen 15 cents in the face of forthcoming ginning figures indicating a larger yield than had been predicted.

This census return is the last that will be issued until two months from now, so the total supply given to Jan. 1 shows a total of 1,046,000 bales, or only 131,000 bales below the government's December forecast of 10,081,000 bale yield. The final ginning statement of March in recent years has added to the January record amounts ranging from 85,000 bales in 1922 to 1,354,000 in 1921.

STEEL INDUSTRY SWINGING BACK INTO ITS STRIDE

BY O. A. MATHER.

The steel industry is getting back into its stride. New business, again is increasing shipments despite the fact that production has been expanded. Exports for the industry as a whole have been pushed up to 80 per cent of capacity this week, with the Steel Corporation doing around $3 per cent.

Perhaps the most cheerful feature is a general improvement buying by agricultural implement manufacturers. The farm machinery industry has been one of the last to recover from the 1920 depression. Therefore the present marked increase in this line of business also augurs better status of the farms and suggests better things ahead for all agriculture.

Buying by the automobile plants and the railroads is helping the steel expansion.

The Big Spring Business.

"The farm implement demand is on the scale equalled in many months," says the Steel Age. says, "At Chicago the year's sales of steel bar tonnage were the highest since last May. Leaders of the steel industry now find sign posts pointing to large scale operations well into the second quarter."

The Steel Age adds: "The demand for the better status of the farms and suggests better things ahead for all agriculture."

A large farm implement manufacturer in the west has specified more bars than January in any previous month in its history," the Iron Trade News says.

"Recent purchases of automobile cars and trucks are estimated at over 100,000 units. Pending orders for freight cars are not less than 40,000. Structural steel awards are running at the highest rate in a year."

Passenger Carry 25,000,000 in Year.

Nearly 25,000,000 passengers were carried in Chicago last year by the Chicago Motor Coach company, and this year the company expects to carry between 30,000,000 and 35,000,000 passengers, according to President John A. Ritchie.

"It was not until July that we were able to begin to augment our fleet of coaches to meet the type of bus," Mr. Ritchie states in his annual report. "Nevertheless, the large increase in passenger traffic took place in the last six months, Dec. 21 there were in operation 235 buses."

Net profit of the company for 1923, first year under the present management, applicable to dividends amounted to more than $100,000. The dividend requirement being $337,500, the balance of the common stock was more than $75,000, or $1.52 a share on the 47,500 shares of common stock, par value $5.00 a share.

FINANCIAL NOTES

High priced specialties were again the center of speculative interest in the stock market yesterday. Sales ran over the million mark for the first time in three years. However, buyers were hampered by the decision of the Senate to postpone the New York state tax law unconstitutional. Higher copper prices, another series of record oil prices, and the continuation of higher sugar prices and a resumption of dividends in some of the important producing companies.

Consolidated Gas was heavily bought on the announcement of the master's decision to stop pumping from the 63% to 80% of its cholesterol gas. A new high record was set yesterday. Brooklyn Union Gas closed higher at 125%, and moderate improvement was noted in most of the out-of-town public utilities.

Hardin Oil was in demand in anticipation of the stockholders' approval of the sale of a block of treasury stock at the market price of $100 a share. The vote was taken on Jan. 29 and then set to 33%, when it was up 13% on the day. Pan-American and Sinclair issues were again under pressure. But they had recovered to 100% in the afternoon. Pan-American B showed a gain of 10% on the day, but the A stock and Sinclair were only fractionally lower.

Coca Products again was the feature of the specialty list, touching a record breaking point of 174% and closing slightly below that figure for a net gain of 5%. Special buying in United Fruit, which carried that stock up to 125% today, to 125%, stock has been based on expectation of a favorable earnings report. General Electric fell back nearly 2 points to day, to 125%. Strength of U. S. Industrial stocks, which were near 25% yesterday at 74%, was noted as a harbinger of an early resumption of dividend payments at the 8% rate.

Announcements of wage increases for certain classes of Company employees had a somewhat depressing effect on the railroad shares, most of which showed fractional recessions. Special strength however, by Pittsburgh and West Virginia coal companies, which closed with a point higher at 43%. Lehigh Valley, one of the recent strong spots, dropped more than a point on profit-taking.

CORPORATION EARNINGS

H. H. FRANKLIN.

The company, according to its report for 1923, had a profit of $1,000,000, the largest ever in its history. Production during the present year will be increased above 2,250 cars, or approximately 100,000, the output of which it is understood, in excess of taxes, depreciation, and other expenses.

Parcels of preferred stock will have to contribute more than $500,000 for common requirements.

ALABAMA POWER

Net earnings of the operating subsidiary of the Alabama Light and Power company, increased from $5,750,722 in 1922 to $5,855,073 in 1923.

Accused Pastor and Accusing Husband Face Each Other Today in Court—Banker Admits Shortage

Dear
This is the hardest letter I have ever written as I am in a severe struggle & friend and relative always stand by my side for my husband is above all else on earth. I have told you the truth as I believed yesterday & today I have thought & thought. I have gone over all the details that I can think of. I have had guidance from above as to what I should tell you the details. I have stood home tonight to write this, I feel calm in a sense maybe I too am dullled. (not my love though).

I have ever been one to show affection & one time suddenly when he & I were talking a minute I took his hand & kissed it. he just said thank you & went away. One time when you were gone & all was quiet down here & it seemed as if I could pray. I stopped after dinner at the door of the study & talked just a moment

GOV. AL SMITH RIDING HIGH ON CREST OF BOM

Passes Underwood as McAdoo Rial.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENING. New York, Jan. 24.—[Spec.—] The newest thing political in these parts is the earnest booming of Gov. Smith for the Democratic nomination for President.

The movement has been growing ever since the Democratic national committee voted to hold the national convention in New York city despite the fact that supporters of William G. McAdoo nominally numbered more than a majority of the committee and that the McAdoo managers offered any city to New York, the strongest of the weak, of big business, and of Tammany.

With this triumph the anti-McAdoo leaders took new hope. When selection of New York was due lack of management in the McAdoo camp, or lack of sufficient nerve to set the convention to San Francisco, claims of the opposition began to reach other that they had accomplished on a small scale in the committee they might be able to accomplish on a large scale in the convention.

All Fighting McAdoo.

So all the anti-McAdoo Democrats in this part of the country, though committed to different aspirants to the nomination, are congratulating themselves for getting dues but McAdoo delegates elected to the convention with the understanding they will go behind the candidate who offers the greatest promise of giving Mr. Wilson a safe political quietus.

It may be that in pursuance of the contemplated tactic Gov. Smith, Senator Underwood [Al], Governor of New Jersey, and John W. Davis of West Virginia, former American ambassador to Great Britain, will be called out of the race after another effort to stampede the convention.

Now, of all the anti-McAdoo contingent the bliftest, brashest, ad cockiest are the Al Smith boosters. They are actually beginning to talk that they may be able "to pull over" the governor has emerged as the favorite son class and has moved to the front as the strongest candidate for the nomination. in the end.

Tammany Mobilizes for.

Tammany is making plans stage a demonstration for Smith at the convention, the like of which has never been seen or heard before. To chorus of the sidewalkers of New York in the San Francisco convention, where Al was only a favorite son, [it] be recalled as an extremely amateur performance when Tammany cut loose.

In addition to the ninety delegates of New York, Smith, his friends contemplate, will have on the official roll the votes of Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, and Ohio, a total of 512, or 213 short of the regular two-thirds majority.

The governor is now generally regarded as having edged out of Underwood as the outstanding opponent of McAdoo. Smith is a Hobo and Underwood is a southern and traditional in the Democratic party always has decreased against the nomination of either. In view, however, of the phenomenal vote garnering qualifications of Smith, the party mightiest is safe to ignore tradition in this case.

"He Can Win—if Nominated."

Leaders like Charles Murphy and George E. Brennan have been saying for months that Al Smith would make a sure winner if he could only be nominated. They figure that the pressure that the west eastern states would vote for Smith in the election from choice, and that the very southern states would vote for him from habit, and that he would carry Ohio and the western states and possibly Indiana. They could figure out a majority of the electoral college for Smith considerably enough, but they couldn't figure out two-thirds of a Democratic convention for him. No, they think it may not be hopeless after all, and there is just a chance that the convention will abide the two-thirds rule and provide a nomination by a simple majority, which will be 512 the year.

If so, the McAdoo majority of the national committee would have to go through a recommendation to this effect, but it had not been fear that Smith, instead of McAdoo, would be beneficiary.
